TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Fourth of July Oration—
John C. McCue will deliver the Fourth of July oration. The invitation was extended to him by the Fourth of July committee yesterday and was accepted.

Next Assessments—
Mr. Cornelius says that next year's assessments will be 30 per cent in advance of this year and that those on timber claims will advance 20 to 25 per cent.

More Citizens—
David Heino, of Finland, yesterday declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States. And Oscar Laito of the same county also filed his intention.

Building—
Mr. McFarland has recommenced work on his house at the northwest corner of Fourth and Bond streets. The building will be two stories in height and has a stone and cement basement already nearly completed.

Phonograph Display—
Fred Johnson is preparing a window full of talking machines in the building now occupied by the Nickelodean. All of the latest styles and new wrinkles in the phonograph line will be on exhibition.

Rose Carnival—
Today is the day of the rose carnival a new feature to be introduced to Astorian social events by Mrs. Ferguson's Sunday school class. Everybody is asked to send roses to the lecture room of the Methodist Church where the meeting will take place morning and evening.

Police Court—
One plain drunk appeared before Judge Anderson yesterday and received a fine of $2 or one day in jail. The gentleman has an uncle in Astoria whom he didn't see for some time and the celebration which ensued got beyond control. Bail was forfeited to the extent of $30.

Y. M. C. A.—
The annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. students will be held at Gearhart Park, commencing today and will continue till the 23rd of the month. Washington and Idaho will both send representatives from their various colleges as well as Oregon, and some well known speakers will attend.

Died At Skamokawa—
Mrs. Johanna Sworkmo, aged 29 years, died yesterday at Skamokawa. Mrs. Sworkmo has been sick for some time and in fact has been almost an invalid. Just what the cause of her death was, Undertaker Gilbaugh was not able to say last night. Mrs. Sworkmo was a descendant of a family of old settlers in that district. The interment will be today in the Skamokawa Cemetery.

THOUGHT HE WAS DOG BUT DIDN'T BITE

TAKES DOG COLLARS AND THROWS THEM AWAY AND AFTERWARDS DUMPS HATS IN RIVER.

Albert Carlson must have rushed the "growler" to some effect yesterday at any rate he was imbued, not only with the usual contents of a "growler," but with some ideas which led him to an attempt to tie himself up in a manner which is usually the accepted form for another class of "growler." In fact, he deemed it necessary to purloin a couple of dog collars of the largest size from the Fisher Bros. store. Having got them, he probably reflected that the police would do all the chaining up that was necessary in his case, for he threw them away in front of the Reid building. About this time, 5:30 p. m., yesterday, Officer Houghton got on his scent—having seen him bareheaded and with the dog collars in his hand. However, the officer lost him for a while, but soon got track of him again. This time he was plus a new hat and minus the dog collars, having discarded the dog idea altogether. But in the meantime a fisherman had picked up a package, containing a lot of caps, in the river, and he gave information that he had seen a drunken man throw them in. Evidently Albert's head had begun to inflate and expand, and he had doubts as to one hat being large enough to cover it, but finding that after all one was effectual he threw away the rest of the head gear he had annexed. Here is where Officer Houghton came on the scene again and escorted the dog fancier to the kennels on the hill. He was admitted as a common drunk and the dog collars with him. Today he will have a chance to explain his infatuation.

Rebekah's Trip—
Quite a few of the Gateway Rebekahs went to Hammond on the steamer Miller and were the guests of the Sacaajamen Rebekah lodge of that city. Exemplifying long work was the order of business and the Astoria visitors returned declaring their hosts to be the best of entertainers. An excellent musical program and literary entertainment was following by an unsurpassable lunch.

NEW HOTEL PLANS ARE COMPLETED

ARCHITECT LEWIS WILL ARRIVE IN ASTORIA ON NOON TRAIN TODAY WITH PLANS FOR STRUCTURE.

Astoria is now assured of having a first-class hotel, the magnificent five-story structure which the Weinhard estate has had in view for some time, has now passed the stage where it was a matter of talk and has become a reality. A telegram was received last evening by Norris Staples which indicates that the plans are completed and that the work will begin at once. The telegram is as follows:

Portland, Or., June 14, 1907.
Mr. Norris Staples, Astoria, Or.

Please meet Mr. Lewis, architect, Saturday forenoon, at the train in Astoria. He has the plans and you will please advertise for bids.

(Signed),
HENRY WEINHARD BREWERY.
It is evident from the foregoing that the plans are in shape and with the advertising for bids, the work will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. The contract will be let immediately after the bids are all received. The hotel will fill a long felt want and the Weinhard estate is to be congratulated on the structure which they are about to begin work on.

FAIRBANK'S BANQUET AT SEASIDE

BANQUET FOR VICE-PRESIDENT WILL BE HELD AT HOTEL MOORE, AT 8 O'CLOCK ON THE EVENING OF JULY 15.

The reception committee of the Chamber of Commerce which is wrestling with the details of the Vice-President's banquet, met last evening at the Chamber of Commerce and adopted the report of the sub-committee on the banquet. The report of this committee was to the effect that the banquet should be held at the Moore Hotel at Seaside.

The banquet is to be held at 8:30 o'clock on the night of the 15th of July.

In fact, July 15th will be a very strenuous day in Astoria. The reception committee will have to board their special coach for Goble at about 5 o'clock in the morning. The Vice-President of the United States will arrive there at a few minutes after 7 o'clock and will be brought direct to Astoria where he will arrive at 10 o'clock. During the day he will be the guest of Senator Fulton and be given a carriage ride about the city and a ride in a yacht on the river. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon he will make a public speech in the open air. A special round-trip railroad fare of one and a third will be given from all points by the railroad. The crowd therefore ought to be very large if the weather is propitious.

The banquet will come in the evening after the entire day's program so far as the public is concerned, has been completed. There will be 150 plates at the banquet and those of the citizens who desire to attend should go to the Chamber of Commerce at once and sign the role, as the first come will be the first served, and after the 150 names have been subscribed, the list will have to be closed, as there is a limited amount of banquet room and only 150 people can be seated.

A special train will take the Vice-President and the guests, who will be in full dress, to Seaside from Astoria, leaving here at about 7 o'clock in the evening. There will be in the list of banqueters some invited guests and therefore the chances are rather slim for everybody getting an opportunity to attend. It was for this reason that the committee has decided that those who first sign the role at the Chamber of Commerce, which is now open, will have to be taken as the list of those who will be present at the banquet.

SOLDIER PULLS GUN ON SERGEANT

IN DRUNKEN BRAWL AT ILWACO SOLDIER PULLS OUT HIS REVOLVER AND THREATENS CROWD

In a saloon row which occurred yesterday morning at Ilwaco, a soldier who had imbibed too freely, got quarrelsome and wishing to demonstrate his ability to substantiate his arguments he drew his revolver and made loud threats at the crowd. A sergeant of his company who was present at the time endeavored to get the gun away from the drunken man. But the soldier turned on him and leveling his gun threatened to shoot. The assistance of the town marshal was required and whilst he guarded the man communications were sent to Fort Stevens. The authorities then instructed the marshal and others to keep watch over the maddened soldier and notified them that they would send an escort to place the man under arrest and bring him to the Fort. Eventually the escort arrived and the soldier was subdued, placed in irons and taken to Fort Stevens where he is now confined.

WALDORF THEATER.

The Waldorf Theater, the home of vaudeville in Astoria, is now open for business, all of the rough edges have worn off and the performance is running smoothly and it is one of the best shows, for the small admission fee of 10 cents, of any in the country. Wilson and Leicester in their Indian act, entitled "Ramona," are the hit of the whole performance and deservedly so, for it is one of the few high class singing acts on the vaudeville stage today. Professor Hunt's collection of trained simians and canines are the wonder of the country performing their many marvelous feats with clock-like precision and an intelligence that only lacks the power of speech to make it human. Pretty little Josephine Gordon and her chimp impersonations are as clever a bit of character work as ever witnessed in Astoria. Manager Wise declares his intention to conduct a show along the lines demanded by his patrons, a clean performance, and will spare no expense to give them the best there is to be had, regardless of the time, trouble and money that it will take to bring it to the Waldorf Theater.
